Task

What would be in your dystopian world?

Write a brief description of your dystopian world.

Challenge - try to include a range of figurative language features from the checklist.

My dystopian world would be a miserable, dark place. Spiders the size of cars would roam the lonely abyss, their webs like tangled clouds invading roof tops and side streets. Time would scrape by, minutes that feel like hours, days that feel like weeks. Cautiously, civilians would scurry around the polluted streets, desperate to get home before curfew.
