

Be creative.
Choose Drama.

BTEC Performing Arts - Acting

What skills does this subject offer?

- Confidence
- Communication
- Working under pressure
- Adaptability
- Leadership & management
- Organisation
- Public speaking
- Empathy
- Team work
- Creativity/thinking outside the box
- Problem solving
- Self-discipline

Drama not only gives you the relevant knowledge to enter the creative sector, but also a range of valuable transferable skills, lending itself to roles in a diverse range of industries.

Course overview

	Component title	Marks
Component 1 YR10	Exploring the Performing Arts	36
Component 2 YR10/11	Developing Skills and Techniques in the Performing Arts	36
Component 3 YR11	Responding to a Brief	48
		Total marks 120 marks

Requirements of the course

You MUST be able to perform in front of others

You MUST be able to work with a group

There IS written on this course and you're expected to complete to the best of your ability!

C1: Exploring the Performing Arts

- A minimum of three professional works and styles
- Job roles and responsibilities
- Play analysis
- Page to stage process

C2: Developing Skills and Techniques in the Performing Arts

- The exam board will give a theme
- You will need to learn, stage and perform a script in front of an audience
- Alongside this, you will need to keep a rehearsal log of your character development
- You will be submitting video evidence throughout the process

C3: Responding to a Brief

- The exam board will give a brief, that includes a theme.
- You will work in groups to devise a performance.
- You will have to complete three responses, which include; an ideas log, a skills log and an evaluation.

Where can this course take me?

Drama based careers

(UK average salary per year)

- Actor (salary varies depending on job)
- Broadcast/radio presenter £46,540
- Drama therapist (senior) £65,262
- Script writer £31,739
- Theatre director £34, 092
- Theatre stage manager £41,418
- Choreographer £45,000
- Further education teacher £49,553
- Special effects technician £29,123
- Talent agent £42,986
- Community arts worker £17,520
- Senior television floor manager £45,000
- Costume designer £32,705

Non-theatre careers with a drama qualification

(UK average salary per year)

- Lawyer £52,353
- Social media manager £34,844
- Vlogger £36,243
- Media researcher £25,694
- Animator £35,000
- Game artist £33,767
- Football commentator £33,150
- VFX designer £36,297
- Concept artist £31,346
- Fashion designer £29,752
- Author £30,958
- Advertising executive £29,692
- Broadcast journalist £35,012

Any questions